FLASHPOINT
A CULTURAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION PROJECT

Washington Project for the Arts\Corcoran (WPAIC) returns to Flashpoint with ANONYMOUS III where 100 artists create 2' x 2' works of art to be sold for $500 each. Buyers will not know the identity of the creator until the work has been purchased. Sales are split 50/50 with the Artists. Proceeds benefit the WPAIC and Flashpoint. Sorry, no works will be sold at the preview reception. Sales will commence on Friday, June 8th at 6pm. One piece per patron. You may send a proxy if necessary. Cash, checks and credit cards accepted. First come, first served.

About WPAIC
Washington Project for the Arts\Corcoran (WPAIC) is an independent, non-profit, artist member organization dedicated to promoting excellence in regional contemporary art by presenting experimental exhibitions and performances, stimulating dialogue between emerging and established artists and involving artists in educational programs that benefit local residents.

About FLASHPOINT
Flashpoint, a Cultural Development Corporation project, is funded in part by The Morris & Gwendolyn Cafritz Foundation, the DC Commission on the Arts & Humanities, Gilbert & Jaylee Mead, The Eugene and Agnes E. Meyer Foundation, the National Endowment for the Arts and many other generous sponsors. Hotel Rouge/Bar Rouge is Flashpoint's 2006–2007 Hotel Partner.
